GOSPEL MEDITATION SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

"So that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me." Does technology bring us together, or does it remind us of distance and differences and keep us apart? Most days, I'm not so sure. With the constant inundation of news from across the world, it can be easier to tune out the sufferings and the joys of people we'll never meet, in places we'll never visit. But is this the invitation of Jesus?

Over the centuries, our Church has become truly universal across the globe. There are Christians across nations and cultures, across lines of rich and poor. There are Christians who live behind white picket fences, and Christians dying in conflict zones. "That they may all be one," Jesus prays. One in what? Love. "That the love with which you loved me may be in them." This is easier said than done, of course. The world is far too vast for us to individually love every human being. I can hardly remember the names of half the regulars at my Sunday Mass! But that doesn't mean we can't try.

"I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word." Jesus had this religious popular explosion in mind. The mission and message of Christ was not meant to stop in the Apostle's generation or stay cordoned off in the geographic confines of Israel. Jesus' words at the Last Supper are a prayer, a plea to the Father for the spread and unity of the Church across time and space.

Look for the display next week. Please take a sneaker from the display in church, starting June 2nd, and return the sneaker card with a new pair of sneakers.

The sizes, which appear on each sneaker, are suggested sizes. This will assist in having a variety of sizes for the recipients aged toddler through teen.

Collection boxes are located near the doors at both of our churches.

LIVE THE LITURGY

How do we find our way through life and discover who we really are? It is easy to get distracted by life's preoccupations and worldly constructs. We can avoid dealing with deeper questions simply by being absorbed in life's demands and the roles we are asked to play. Is it important to us that we come from God and have our identity in Him? The world cannot succeed in telling us who we are. Only God can. Only through Jesus's resurrection can we see clearly that he is the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, and the bright morning star. It is by following his example that we can all become one with the Father and brought to perfection. We are designed to be one with God and united with one another as believers in Jesus Christ. When someone experiences our speech and actions, do they witness the fact that we truly believe this?

Did you know...that Jesus prayed for you? He prayed for me, too. He prayed for your parents, your grandparents, your great, great, great, great grandparents, and for your great, great, great, great grandchildren. In today’s Gospel, we hear Jesus say to God the Father “Holy Father, I pray not only for them (the apostles), but also for those who will believe in me through their word (through the teachings of the Apostles, through the Gospels in our Bible!)”. Jesus is talking about us!

Jesus prayed for everyone in the past and in the future, asking that we all listen to the story of Jesus and his life. He wants us to hear his good news, and then live his good news. When we all become obedient to God, and live and love like Jesus, we will be “one” with God.

Jesus prayed for you. He prayed that you would listen to him. He prayed that you would live a loving life. He prayed that someday you would be able to join himself and God the Father in heaven.

How will you answer Jesus’ prayer?
