THE MISSION OF SAINT JULIA PARISH

We, the parishioners of Saint Julia Parish, seek to live our belief in Christ as we worship and serve Him according to His example and teachings. With appreciation of the diverse gifts of our individual members, we strive to gain the participation of each parishioner and work to ensure that everyone feels welcome in our community of faithful. We do this while mindful of God's love for us and the power of His Spirit that makes us holy, heals our brokenness and sustains us in all the good we do. We are committed in the spirit of Christian stewardship to share generously our time, talent, and treasure.

GOSPEL REFLECTION EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

The cake is frosted, the guests have arrived, and the gifts are piled high. One by one, the packages are opened, and one by one, the child reaches for another. Who among us hasn't seen a child who appears crestfallen when the gifts run out? Even the abundance isn't quite enough. Today's Gospel tackles a key question in the spiritual life - grateful or greedy?

"There was a rich man whose land produced a bountiful harvest." We all recognize the need to be practical. Raising a family, there's need to save for all sorts of things beyond normal day-to-day costs - medical bills, family vacations, private school, rainy day funds, retirement. Jesus doesn't critique the rich man for simply having an abundant harvest. It's his mentality. Does the rich man sell off the extra to make the needed repairs to the back fence or to invest in some additional livestock to grow the business? Perhaps donate some of the excess to the poor? No. "You have so many good things stored up for many years, rest, eat, drink, be merry!" The man wants to hoard and indulge with no concern for others.

Jesus doesn't condemn prudent saving or owning necessary items. He calls us to purify our attitudes. "Guard against all greed... one's life does not consist of possessions." We are called to be good stewards. This means being practical. It also means remaining open to God's invitation with our resources. Are we tithing to our parish? Do we give alms to the poor? Does our weekly entertainment far outstrip what we offer to others? Life is not about "stor[ing] up treasure for [our]selves." The more we grow in gratitude and generosity, the more we become "rich in what matters to God."

18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

[Jesus] said to the crowd, "Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." - Lk 12:15

AUGUST 11

First Reading: For when you punished our adversaries, In this you glorified us whom you had summoned. (Wis 18:8)

Psalm: Blessed the people the Lord has chosen to be his own. (Ps 33)

Second Reading: So it was that there came forth from one man, himself as good as dead, descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky. (Heb 11:12a)

Gospel: "You also must be prepared, for at an hour you do not expect, the Son of Man will come." (Lk 12:40)

LIVE THE LITURGY

How preoccupied and anxious are you over preserving and maintaining a particular standard of wealth? It is easy to develop an unhealthy relationship with our possessions and invest ourselves more in their protection and growth than in our relationship with God. Greed can overtake us, often without our immediate notice. Anxiety of heart can find us living more with sorrow and grief than with freedom and joy. We can never allow things to replace God, and we always have to keep our possessions and wealth in proper perspective. Once they begin to control us, we have a problem. Anxiety and worry can become our greatest sins. There is a joyful life to be discovered when we discover true faith!

King Solomon

Jesus Christ

St. Paul

Did you know...that God has been asking us to pay attention to one important thing, over at least the last 4,000 years? Today, we hear that message from God, spoken through three people: King Solomon, who wrote Ecclesiastes in 935 BCE, Jesus Christ, who taught it circa 30 CE, and Saint Paul, who wrote about it in a letter in the 50's CE. Here is the message: Focus your life on the treasures that will give you eternal life. Earning lots of money is not going to get you into eternal life, unless you use your excess to help others in need. Having a big fancy home is not going to get you into eternal life, unless you offer the excess space to someone who needs shelter. Having lots of free time isn't going to get you into eternal life, unless you use that time to help someone else.

Be rich in what matters to God, not self!

CALLING FOR FILM AS WELL AS PHOTO MEMORIES OF ST JULIA'S PARISH

WestonMedia has offered to assist in our Centenary celebration by helping us to document and present 100 years of faith, service and community at St Julia's for local access television and other digital media.

In addition to the stories and photographs that have been shared it would be great to use any films or videotapes of activities at St Julia's over the decades. WestonMedia can adapt this material to present our history in a fun engaging way. Any 16mm film or videotape can be digitized and returned to original owners.

If you have any of these kind of resources please e-mail Colm at cmcgarry@stjulia.org

Parishioners attending The "Sound of Music" featuring our own Mara Bonde as Mother Superior enjoy a meal at the Chateau prior to the show.
