FIRST EUCHARIST AND FIRST PENANCE
CONFIRMATION (HIGH SCHOOL)

Dear Families,

We are very happy to be returning to a somewhat “normal” Faith Formation for students in Grades 1-12! We have missed the students tremendously, and are looking forward to hearing and seeing them again.

Classes for children in Grades 1-8 will be held on Sunday mornings, for 45 minutes, from 10:30 – 11:15 am, Confirmation/High School classes will take place on Sunday evenings from 6pm to 7.15pm, and Grades 1-5 will be held on Monday afternoons from 2:45 – 3:30 pm. Homeschooling is an option for Grades 1-6. The Project Nazareth Family Formation program will be available to anyone registered for Faith Formation, at no extra cost.

The curriculum for Grades 1-5 will include a Mass at which the children participate in a liturgical ministry, followed by a Family Gathering, both at which at least one parent and the student is expected to attend. Grade 6 students will participate in a Mass and present posters at Café Julia following the Mass.

The curriculum for Grades 7 & 8 is “Understanding Catholic Christianity”. The High School classes will be using “Alpha for Teens” to prepare them for the Sacrament of Confirmation.

We will be following the Boston Archdiocese’s mandates for the allowed number of students in a classroom, abiding by seating and masking regulations. Since these mandates change according to the CDC recommendations, we will make adjustments in October as necessary, when the classes start.

Registration forms may be dropped off at the Parish Center in person or placed into our Dropbox located outside, in the walkway between rectory and Parish Center doors, or mailed to St. Julia Parish, 374 Boston Post Road, Weston, MA 02493. For any questions, contact information is listed below.

We are very much looking forward to becoming Disciples together!

In Christ,
