Gathering Hymn:

I Know that My Redeemer Lives

I know that my Redeemer lives;
What joy the blest assurance gives!
He lives, he lives, who once was dead;
He lives, my everlasting head.

He lives, and grants me daily breath;
He lives, and I shall conquer death;
He lives, my mansion to prepare;
He lives, to bring me safely there.

He lives, all glory to his name;
He lives, my Savior still the same;
What joy the blest assurance gives;
I know that my Redeemer lives!

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading:

Acts 14:21-27

After Paul and Barnabas had proclaimed the good news to that city and made a considerable number of disciples, they returned to Lystra and to Iconium and to Antioch. They strengthened the spirits of the disciples and exhorted them to persevere in the faith, saying, "It is necessary for us to undergo many hardships to enter the kingdom of God." They appointed elders for them in each church and, with prayer and fasting, commended them to the Lord in whom they had put their faith. Then they traveled through Pisidia and reached Pamphylia. After proclaiming the word at Perga they went down to Attalia. From there they sailed to Antioch, where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had now accomplished. And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

Responsorial Psalm: "I will praise your name, my king and my God."

Second Reading: Revelation 21:1-5a

Then I, John, saw a new heaven and a new earth. The former heaven and the former earth had passed away, and the sea was no more. I also saw the holy city, a new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband. I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God. He will wipe every tear from their eyes, and there shall be no more death or mourning, wailing or pain, for the old order has passed away."

The One who sat on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new."

Gospel: John 13:31-33a, 34-35

When Judas had left them, Jesus said, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and God will glorify him at once. My children, I will be with you only a little while longer. I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another. This is how all will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

The Nicene Creed:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
rified through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again
on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glo-
who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Preparation of the Gifts: Easter Alleluia

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Glory to God who does wondrous things,
Let all the people God's praises now sing,
All of creation in splendor shar ring: Alleluia!

See how salvation for all has been won,
Up from the grave our new live has begun,
Life now perfected in Jesus, the Son: Alleluia!

Now in our presence the Lord will appear,
Shine in the faces of all of us here,
Fill us with joy and cast out all fear: Alleluia!

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

Communion Hymn:We Come to Your Feast

We place upon your table a gleaming cloth of white:
 the weaving of our stories, the fabric of our lives;
 the dreams of those before us, the ancient hopeful cries,
 the promise of our future: our needing and our nature
 Lie here before our eyes.

Refrain

We come to your feast, we come to your feast:
 the young and the old, the frightened the bold, the greatest and the least.
 We come to your feast, we come to your feast
 with the fruit of our lands and the work of our hands, we come to your feast.

We place upon your table a humble loaf of bread:
 the gift of field and hillside, the grain by which we're fed;
 we come to taste the presence of him on whom we feed,
 to strengthen and connect us, to challenge and correct us,
 to love in word and deed. Refrain

We place upon your table a simple cup of wine:
 the fruit of human labor, the gift of sun and vine;
 we come to taste the presence of him we claim as Lord,
 his dying and his living, his leading and his giving,
 his love in cup outpoured. Refrain

Communion Meditation (11:30): Marija, Marija

Traditional Lithuanian Hymn to the Blessed Mother
 Sung by Danute Mileika

Maria, you are like a pure lily,
 You shine high in heaven;
 Ease our burdens,
 Help us people,
 Help from our enemies.
 We sinners beg of your mercy.

Those who fall by the wayside,
 Give them strength and lead them
 Between sighing oceans -
 These earthly wars -
 Those fallen, help them.

Closing Hymn:Sing with All the Saints in Glory

Sing with all the saints in glory, sing the resurrection song!
 Death and sorrow, earth's dark story, to the former days belong.
 All around the clouds are breaking, soon the storms of time shall cease;
 In God's likeness, we awaken, knowing everlasting peace.

O what glory, far exceeding all that eye has yet perceived!
 Holiest hearts for ages pleading, never that full joy conceived.
 God has promised, Christ prepares it, there on high our welcome waits;
 Ev'ry humble spirit shares it, Christ has passed the eternal gates.
