The Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time ~ June 26, 2022

Gathering Hymn:

I Sing the Mighty Power of God

I sing the mighty pow'r of God
That made the mountains rise,
That spread the flowing seas abroad,
And built the lofty skies.
I sing the wisdom that ordained
The sun to rule the day;
The moon shines full at God's command
And all the stars obey.

There's not a plant of flower below
But makes your glories known;
And clouds arise, and tempests blow,
By order from your throne;
While all that borrows life from you
Is ever in your care,
And ev'rywhere that I may be,
O God, be present there.

Gloria:

Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading:

1 Kings 19:16b, 19-21

The LORD said to Elijah: "You shall anoint Elisha, son of Shaphat of Abelmeholah, as prophet to succeed you."

Elijah set out and came upon Elisha, son of Shaphat, as he was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen; he was following the twelfth. Elijah went over to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, "Please, let me kiss my father and mother goodbye, and I will follow you." Elijah answered, "Go back! Have I done anything to you?" Elisha left him, and taking the yoke of oxen, slaughtered them; he used the plowing equipment for fuel to boil their flesh, and gave it to his people to eat. Then Elisha left and followed Elijah as his attendant.

Responsorial Psalm: "You are my inheritance O Lord."

Second Reading:Galatians 5:1, 13-18

Brothers and sisters: For freedom Christ set us free; so stand firm and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery.

For you were called for freedom, brothers and sisters. But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather, serve one another through love. For the whole law is fulfilled in one statement, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself. But if you go on biting and devouring one another, beware that you are not consumed by one another.

I say, then: live by the Spirit and you will certainly not gratify the desire of the flesh. For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; these are opposed to each other, so that you may not do what you want. But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

Gospel:Luke 9:51-62

When the days for Jesus' being taken up were fulfilled, he resolutely determined to journey to Jerusalem, and he sent messengers ahead of him. On the way they entered a Samaritan village to prepare for his reception there, but they would not welcome him because the destination of his journey was Jerusalem. When the disciples James and John saw this they asked, "Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to consume them?" Jesus turned and rebuked them, and they journeyed to another village.

As they were proceeding on their journey someone said to him, "I will follow you wherever you go." Jesus answered him, "Foxes have dens and birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to rest his head."

And to another he said, "Follow me." But he replied, "Lord, let me go first and bury my father." But he answered him, "Let the dead bury their dead. But you, go and proclaim the kingdom of God." And another said, "I will follow you, Lord, but first let me say farewell to my family at home." To him Jesus said, "No one who sets a hand to the plow and looks to what was left behind is fit for the kingdom of God."

The Nicene Creed:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Preparation of the Gifts:Take Up Your Cross

Take up your cross, the Savior said,
If you would my disciple be;
Take up your cross with willing heart,
And humbly follow after me.

Take up your cross, then, in his strength,
And calmly ev'ry danger brave:
It guides you to a better home
And leads to vict'ry o'er the grave.

Take up your cross, and follow Christ,
Nor think till death to lay it down;
For only those who bear the cross
May hope to wear the glorious crown.

Communion Hymn:We Have Been Told

Refrain:

We have been told, we've seen his face, and heard his voice alive in our hearts;
"Live in my love with all your heart, as the Father has loved me, so I have love you."

I am the vine, you are the branches, and all who live in me will bear great fruit. Refrain

You are my friends, if you keep my commands, no longer slaves, I call you friends. Refrain

No greater love is there than this: to lay down one's life, for a friend. Refrain

Closing Hymn:Go Make of All Disciples

"Go make of all disciples:" We hear the call, O Lord,
That come from you, our Father, in your eternal Word.
Inspire our ways of learning through earnest, fervent prayer,
And let our daily living reveal you ev'rywhere.

"Go make of all disciples:" Baptizing in the name
Of Father, Son and Spirit, from age to age the same.
We call each new disciple to follow you, O Lord,
Redeeming soul and body by water and the Word.

"Go make of all disciples:" We welcome your command;
"Lo, I am with you always:" We take your guiding hand.
The task looms large before us, we follow without fear.
In heav'n and earth your power shall bring God's kingdom here.

THE MISSION OF SAINT JULIA PARISH

We, the parishioners of Saint Julia Parish, seek to live our belief in Christ as we worship and serve Him according to His example and teachings. With appreciation of the diverse gifts of our individual members, we strive to gain the participation of each parishioner and work to ensure that everyone feels welcome in our community of faithful. We do this while mindful of God's love for us and the power of His Spirit that makes us holy, heals our brokenness and sustains us in all the good we do.

We are committed in the spirit of Christian stewardship to share generously our time, talent, and treasure.

Nuestro Pequeños Hermanos

Many of you may recall when some of the NPH youth of Mexico visited our parish, performing traditional dance and sharing their stories. Due to the Pandemic, NPH has not yet been able to make their usual parish visits and fundraising activities. Many of our parishioners have sponsored a child, and NPH is very grateful for that support. If you are interested in assisting them in any kind of donation, please go to: nphusa.org/donate Please keep them in prayer, as they work through these difficult times.

When you make a gift to the annual Appeal, you are helping put faith into action in countless and far-reaching ways and every gift makes a difference. Thank you.

What's that???

The Tabernacle can be found in any Roman Catholic Church—somewhere behind, above, or next to the altar, or it may be in a Chapel of its own, in a room not far from the main Church. It is where the Body of Christ resides, in the form of Communion wafers. The interior is to be lined with gold, the most precious metal that can be offered to Christ our King. Communion wafers are consecrated during Mass, and whatever isn't consumed by the assembly is stored in the Tabernacle. We also keep the Body of Christ available for anyone needing Viaticum—food for the journey—someone who is close to the end of his or her life and about to journey over to eternal life is given the Body of Christ to consume, as nourishment for their final journey.

The word Tabernacle comes from the Book of Exodus, where Moses received instructions on how to build the place of worship, where the presence of God is guaranteed. The original Tabernacle was the inspiration for the design of the Temple in Jerusalem.

Roman Catholic Tabernacles come in different shapes—some look like fancy cathedrals. The one at the Pastoral Center in Braintree is shaped like a Dove. Ours have the symbols of the Four Gospels: Matthew = Angel; Mark = Lion; Luke = Ox; and John = Eagle. The red rays on top depict the tongues of fire received by the Apostles on Pentecost. A lit candle nearby indicates that the Body of Christ is inside. The only day the Tabernacle is empty is on Good Friday.
