

Life

doesn't come with a roadmap.

Montrose School helps young women build a LifeCompass

We harness the power of outstanding faculty and mentors, a rich liberal arts curriculum, the Catholic intellectual tradition, and partnership with parents.

Through each of these, girls develop habits of heart, mind, and character they need to navigate challenges, engage the world and put their talents and gifts to the service of others. They take charge of their learning now. They learn how to be in the driver's seat for life.

Join us at our Spring Open House to discover more about the Montrose difference.
