Second Sunday Easter, Divine Mercy —April 12, 2026

Gathering Hymn:            There's a Wideness in God's Mercy

There's a wideness in God's mercy like the wideness of the sea;
There's a kindness in God's justice which is more than liberty.
There is plentiful redemption in the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members in the sorrows of the Head.

Troubled souls, why will you scatter like a crowd of frightened sheep?
Foolish hearts, why will you wander from a love so true and deep?
There is welcome for the sinner and more graces for the good;
There is mercy with the Savior, there is healing in his blood.

Gloria:            Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading:        Acts 2:42-47

They devoted themselves to the teaching of the apostles and to the communal life, to the breaking of bread and to the prayers. Awe came upon everyone, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles. All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their property and possessions and divide them among all according to each one's need. Every day they devoted themselves to meeting together in the temple area and to breaking bread in their homes. They ate their meals with exultation and sincerity of heart, praising God and enjoying favor with all the people. And every day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved.

Responsorial Psalm    "Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good, his love is everlasting."

Second Reading: 1 Peter 1:3-9

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who in his great mercy gave us a new birth to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, to an inheritance that is imperishable, undefiled, and unfading, kept in heaven for you who by the power of God are safeguarded through faith, to a salvation that is ready to be revealed in the final time. In this you rejoice, although now for a little while you may have to suffer through various trials, so that the genuineness of your faith, more precious than gold that is perishable even though tested by fire, may prove to be for praise, glory, and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ. Although you have not seen him you love him; even though you do not see him now yet believe in him, you rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy, as you attain the goal of your faith, the salvation of your souls.

Gospel Acclamation "Alleluia"

Gospel: John 20:19-31

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained." Thomas, called Didymus, one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. So the other disciples said to him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see the mark of the nails in his hands and put my finger into the nailmarks and put my hand into his side, I will not believe." Now a week later his disciples were again inside and Thomas was with them. Jesus came, although the doors were locked, and stood in their midst and said, "Peace be with you." Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believe." Thomas answered and said to him, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus said to him, "Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed." Now, Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples that are not written in this book. But these are written that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name.

The Nicene Creed:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen

Preparation of the Gifts: “The Lord is kind and merciful; the Lord is kind and merciful.”

Communion Hymn: O Sons and Daughters

Alleluia, alleluia, alleluia.

O sons and daughters, let us sing! The King of heav'n, the glorious, King, O'er death today rose triumphing. Alleluia!

That Easter morn at break of day, the faithful women went their way
To seek the tomb where Jesus lay. Alleluia!

An angel clad in white they see, who sat, and spoke unto the three,
“Your Lord has gone to Galilee.” Alleluia!

That night the apostles met in fear; amidst them came their Lord most dear,
And said, “My peace be on all here.” Alleluia!

When Thomas, first the tidings heard, how they had seen the risen Lord,
He doubted the disciples' word. Alleluia!

“My wounded side, O Thomas, see; behold my hands, my feet,” said he,
“Not faithless, but believing be.” Alleluia!

No longer Thomas then denied, he saw the feet, the hands, the side:
“You are my Lord and God,” he cried. Alleluia!

Closing Hymn: Jesus Christ Is Risen Today

Jesus Christ is ris'n today, Alleluia!
Our triumphant holy day, Alleluia!
Who did once upon the cross, Alleluia!
Suffer to redeem our loss. Alleluia!

But the pains which he endured, Alleluia!
Our salvation have procured; Alleluia!
Now above the sky he's king, Alleluia!
Where the angels ever sing. Alleluia!

Sing we to our God above, Alleluia!
Praise eternal as his love; Alleluia!
Praise him, now his might confess, Alleluia!
Father, Son, and Spirit blest. Alleluia!

THE MISSION OF SAINT JULIA PARISH

We, the parishioners of Saint Julia Parish, seek to live our belief in Christ as we worship and serve Him according to His example and teachings. With appreciation of the diverse gifts of our individual members, we strive to gain the participation of each parishioner and work to ensure that everyone feels welcome in our community of faithful. We do this while mindful of God's love for us and the power of His Spirit that makes us holy, heals our brokenness and sustains us in all the good we do. We are committed in the spirit of Christian stewardship to share generously our time, talent, and treasure.

Many Hands – One Family – One Mission of Love

Each year, our Annual Appeal reminds us that when a community comes together in love and service, extraordinary things can happen. This year's theme, Many Hands - One Family - One Mission of Love, beautifully reflects who we are and what we do through the Society of St. Vincent de Paul of Lincoln and Weston.

At the heart of our mission is the belief that we are one family. When a neighbor struggles to put food on the table, faces unexpected financial hardship, or strives for an educational opportunity, our whole community is called to respond.

Thanks to the generosity of many hands, we can help in meaningful ways—through our food pantry, emergency financial assistance for families facing temporary crises, and educational scholarships that open doors to a better future.

Every gift, large or small, becomes part of this mission of love. Together, as a Parish community, we can bring compassion, respect, and hope to our neighbors who need it most.

During this year's Annual Appeal, we invite you to support us once again. Look for our postcard in the mail or go to svdplincolnweston.org to learn how you can join the many hands that lift our community each day. You can also mail a check directly to SVdP, PO Box 324, Lincoln MA 01773.

With sincere thanks from all of us at The Society of St Vincent de Paul of Lincoln and Weston

Bible Study The Book of Job

A 7 week study on Tuesdays, starting Tuesday, April 7, 2026, 9-11 a.m. at St. Julia Parish Hall.

Why does God allow human suffering? For thousands of years, the profoundly moving story of Job has allowed people of faith to reflect on that question.

Biblical scholar Kathleen O'Connor serves as an insightful guide in this exploration of Innocent suffering, divine silence, and the human quest for understanding.

New members are welcome. If interested in joining, please contact the Parish Office at 781-899-2611 or email: parish@stjulia.org.

Soup and Stations Thank You

On Friday Evening March 27th our annual Soup and Stations event, a cherished Lenten tradition at St. Julia, was well attended. The Stations of the Cross, also known as The Way of the Cross allows participants to meditate on the 14 key moments of Jesus' Passion and crucifixion. It serves as a spiritual pilgrimage to the scenes of Christ's suffering enabling us to focus on the meaning of Christ's sacrifice for us.

The shared meal afterward of delicious meatless soups gave parishioners an opportunity to connect and build fellowship. This evening of Soup and Stations brings the sacred and ordinary together to form a catalyst for forming deeper relationships and a stronger faith.

Thanks to all who contributed to make this a memorable evening.
