Gathering Hymn: Go Make of All Disciples

“Go make of all disciples:” We hear the call, O Lord,
That comes from you, our Father, in your eternal Word.
Inspire our ways of learning through earnest, fervent prayer,
And let our daily living reveal you ev’rywhere.

“Go make of all disciples:” Baptizing in the name
Of Father, Son and Spirit, from age to age the same.
We call each new disciple to follow you, O Lord,
Redeeming soul and body by water and the Word.

“Go make of all disciples:” We welcome your command;
“Lo, I am with you always.” We take your guiding hand.
The task looms large before us, we follow without fear.
In heav’n and earth your power shall bring God’s kingdom here.

Gloria: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: 2 Kings 4:8-11, 14-16a

One day Elisha came to Shunem, where there was a woman of influence, who urged him to dine with her. Afterward, whenever he passed by, he used to stop there to dine. So she said to her husband, “I know that Elisha is a holy man of God. Since he visits us often, let us arrange a little room on the roof and furnish it for him with a bed, table, chair, and lamp, so that when he comes to us he can stay there.” Sometime later Elisha arrived and stayed in the room overnight. Later Elisha asked, “Can something be done for her?” His servant Gehazi answered, “Yes! She has no son, and her husband is getting on in years.” Elisha said, “Call her.” When the woman had been called and stood at the door, Elisha promised, “This time next year you will be fondling a baby son.”

Responsorial Psalm:      “For ever I will sing the goodness of the Lord.”

Second Reading:       Romans 6:3-4, 8-11

Brothers and sisters:

Are you unaware that we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death? We were indeed buried with him through baptism into death, so that, just as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, we too might live in newness of life. If, then, we have died with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him. We know that Christ, raised from the dead, dies no more; death no longer has power over him. As to his death, he died to sin once and for all; as to his life, he lives for God. Consequently, you too must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Acclamation      "Alleluia"

Gospel:                   Matthew 10:37-42

Jesus said to his apostles: "Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me, and whoever loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; and whoever does not take up his cross and follow after me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." "Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives the one who sent me. Whoever receives a prophet because he is a prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and whoever receives a righteous man because he is a righteous man will receive a righteous man's reward. And whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple—amen, I say to you, he will surely not lose his reward."

The Nicene Creed:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty,
maker of heaven and earth, of all things
visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again
on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead
and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son,
who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come.    Amen.

Preparation of the Gifts:    *The Summons

Will you come and follow me if I but call your name?
Will you go where you don't know and never be the same?
Will you let my love be shown, will you let my name be known?
Will you let my life be grown in you and you in me?

Will you leave yourself behind if I but call your name?
Will you care for cruel and kind and never be the same?
Will you risk the hostile stare should your life attract or scare?
Will you let me answer pray'r in you and you in me?

Lord, your summons echoes true when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow in you and you in me.

Communion Hymn:            *We Are Many Parts

Refrain

We are many parts, we are all one body, and the gifts we have we are given to share.
May the Spirit of love make us one indeed;
one the love that we share, one our hope in despair, one, the cross that we bear.

God of all, we look to you, we would be your servants true,
let us be your love to all the world. Refrain

So my pain is pain for you, in your joy is my joy, too;
all is brought together in the Lord. Refrain

All you seekers, great and small, seek the greatest gift of all;
if you love, then you will know the Lord. Refrain

Closing Hymn:            *Lord, Whose Love in Humble Service

Lord, whose love in humble service
Bore the weight of human need,
Who did on the Cross forsaken,
Show us mercy's perfect deed;
We, your servants, bring the worship
Not of voice alone, but heart:
Consecrating to your purpose
Ev'ry gift which you impart.

Called from worship into service
Forth in your great name we go,
To the child, the youth, the aged,
Love in living deeds to show;
Hope and health, goodwill and comfort,
Counsel, aid, and peace we give
That your children, Lord, in freedom,
May your mercy know and live.

Thank you for joining us in worship today! Please see the Bulletin section in the following pages for events and service opportunities, or go to our website: stjulia.org

We wish you a blessed week!

American Saints, Blesseds, and Venerables

During this year, in which our country will celebrate the 250th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, Father Scott has been reading a book each month about an American Saint, Blessed or Venerable (or one who has made an impact in our country). So far, he has read books about St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Venerable Mother Mary Lange, St. Katharine Drexel, St. Damian of Molokai, and St. Junipero Serra.

Fr. Scott invites you to join him in using July to learn more about Blessed Stanley Rother. One way to do so is by reading The Shepherd Who Didn't Run: Blessed Stanley Rother, Martyr from Oklahoma (Revised) by Maria Ruiz Scaperfanda. There will be an opportunity to gather together for discussion about Blessed Stanley Rother and this book.

Welcome to the Catholic Corner where we present the Basic Teachings of the Catholic Faith.

The Desire for God

The desire for God is written in the human heart, because man is created by God and for God; and God never ceases to draw man to himself. Only in God will he find the truth and happiness he never stops searching for. Man is by nature and vocation a religious being. Coming from God, going toward God, man lives a fully human life only if he freely lives by his bond with God. Man is made to live in communion with God in whom he finds happiness: “When I am completely united to you, there will be no more sorrow or trials; entirely full of you, my life will be complete” (St. Augustine, Confessions:10, 28, 39: PL 32, 795). When he listens to the message of creation and to the voice of conscience, man can arrive at certainty about the existence of God, the cause and the end of everything. “Without the Creator, the creature vanishes” (Gaudium et Spes 36). This is the reason why believers know that the love of Christ urges them to bring the light of the living God to those who do not know him or who reject him. (usccb.org)

Help Fill Our Pantry — One Neighborhood at a Time!

Our SVdP Food Pantry serves families in Lincoln and Weston, and we depend on generous food donations to keep our shelves stocked with the essentials our neighbors need.

We're looking for volunteers to host a simple neighborhood food drive — and it's easier than you think!

Here's how it works:

- Create and distribute a simple flyer in your neighborhood
- Invite neighbors to donate nonperishable food items
- Deliver the donations to the pantry
- Help sort and shelve the food

This is a wonderful opportunity for families, students, scout groups, or anyone looking to make a meaningful difference. It's also a great way to involve children in volunteering and teach the joy of helping others.

The total time commitment is about 4–5 hours, scheduled whenever it's convenient for you.

Join us in our mission to ensure that no one in our community faces hunger or food insecurity.
