Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time — October 25, 2026

Gathering Hymn: Come, Holy Ghost

Come, Holy Ghost, Creator blest,
And in our hearts take up thy rest;
Come with thy grace and heav'nly aid
To fill the hearts which thou hast made,
To fill the hearts which thou hast made.

O Comforter, to Thee we cry,
Thou heav'nly gift of God most high;
Thou fount of life, and fire of love,
And sweet anointing from above,
And sweet anointing from above.

Praise we the Lord, Father and Son,
And Holy Spirit with them one;
And may the Son on us bestow
All gifts that from the Spirit flow,
All gifts that from the Spirit flow.

Gloria: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Exodus 22:20-26

Thus says the LORD: "You shall not molest or oppress an alien, for you were once aliens yourselves in the land of Egypt. You shall not wrong any widow or orphan. If ever you wrong them and they cry out to me, I will surely hear their cry. My wrath will flare up, and I will kill you with the sword; then your own wives will be widows, and your children orphans. "If you lend money to one of your poor neighbors among my people, you shall not act like an extortioner toward him by demanding interest from him. If you take your neighbor's cloak as a pledge, you shall return it to him before sunset; for this cloak of his is the only covering he has for his body. What else has he to sleep in? If he cries out to me, I will hear him; for I am compassionate."

Responsorial Psalm: "I love you, Lord, my strength."

Second Reading: 1 Thessalonians 1:5c-10

Brothers and sisters:

You know what sort of people we were among you for your sake. And you became imitators of us and of the Lord, receiving the word in great affliction, with joy from the Holy Spirit, so that you became a model for all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia. For from you the word of the Lord has sounded forth not only in Macedonia and in Achaia, but in every place your faith in God has gone forth, so that we have no need to say anything. For they themselves openly declare about us what sort of reception we had among you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to await his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, Jesus, who delivers us from the coming wrath.

Gospel Acclamation "Alleluia"

Gospel: Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together, and one of them, a scholar of the law tested him by asking, "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and the first commandment. The second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself. The whole law and the prophets depend on these two commandments."

The Nicene Creed:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again
on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Preparation of the Gifts: They'll Know We Are Christians

We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord,
We are one in the Spirit, we are one in the Lord,
And we pray that all unity may one day be restored:
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love;
Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand,
We will walk with each other, we will walk hand in hand,
And together we'll spread the news that God is in our land:
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love;
Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

All praise to the Father, from whom all things come,
And all praise to Christ Jesus, his only Son,
And all praise to the Spirit, who makes us one:
And they'll know we are Christians by our love, by our love;
Yes, they'll know we are Christians by our love.

Communion Hymn: Pan de Vida (Bread of Life)

Refrain

Pan de vida, cuerpo del Señor, cup of blessing, blood of Christ the Lord,
At this table the last shall be first, poder es servir, porque Dios es amor.

We are the dwelling of God, fragile and wounded and weak.
We are the body of Christ, called to be the compassion of God. Refrain

Ustedes me llaman "Señor," me inclino a lavarles los pies:
Hagan lo mismo, humildes, sirviéndose unos a otros. Refrain
(You call me Lord, and I bow to wash your feet:
You must do the same, humbly serving each other.)

There is no Jew or Greek, there is no slave or free:
There is no woman or man; only heirs of the promise of God. Refrain

Closing Hymn: In Christ There is No East or West

In Christ there is no east or west,
In him no south or north,
But one great fam'ly bound by love
Throughout the whole wide earth.

Join hands, disciples in the faith,
Whate'er your race may be!
Who serve each other in Christ's love
Are surely kin to me.

In him shall true hearts ev'rywhere
Their high communion find;
His service is the golden cord
Close-binding humankind.

In Christ now meet both east and west,
In him meet south and north,
All Christly souls are one in him,
Throughout the whole wide earth.

THE MISSION OF SAINT JULIA PARISH

We, the parishioners of Saint Julia Parish, seek to live our belief in Christ as we worship and serve Him according to His example and teachings. With appreciation of the diverse gifts of our individual members, we strive to gain the participation of each parishioner and work to ensure that everyone feels welcome in our community of faithful. We do this while mindful of God's love for us and the power of His Spirit that makes us holy, heals our brokenness and sustains us in all the good we do. We are committed in the spirit of Christian stewardship to share generously our time, talent, and treasure.

Annual Memorial Masses

November 8, 11:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

During November, which begins with the celebration of All Saints and All Souls, we, the church, are called in a special way "to remember our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest." During the 11:30 a.m. Mass at St. Julia Church and the 5:00 p.m. Mass on Sunday, November 8, 2026, Saint Julia Parish will have a special remembrance for Fr. Mark Mahoney and others whose funerals were celebrated here during the past year.

Parishioners can submit the names of family members and friends who died during the past year, but whose funerals were celebrated elsewhere. The Mass will include a reading of the names of all those we remember. Please submit the names of family members and friends who died since November 1, 2025, by noon on Monday, November 2, 2026, for inclusion in this year's Annual Memorial Masses. Please submit names by emailing (parish@stjulia.org) or calling 781-899-2611.

We pray that these Masses will be a source of comfort and great hope for the future.

Ministry of Care-Homebound Ministry

Across the collaborative of St. Julia & St. Joseph, we are grateful for the ministers who offer outreach to our homebound community. It is important that we ensure those who are unable to attend Mass are not forgotten. Ministers can be your spiritual companion for whatever changes you are facing. This ministry works with your schedule; weekly, twice a month or monthly. It can be short-term or long term.

If you would like a visit or would like to know more, please call the Parish Office at 781-899-2611 or email parish@stjulia.org and leave your name and number. It will be passed along to Arlene, Homebound Ministry Coordinator.

Check Your Mail This Week!

We are mailing information about the Grand Annual Collection this week. Please read Fr. Scott's story of learning about generosity and church giving by going to Mass with his mother and siblings. St. Julia Parish uniquely relies heavily on the Grand Annual Collection for both operational expenses and capital improvements. Last year's Grand Annual Collection accounted for nearly 32% of the parish's total income. This year we budgeted $315,000 for the Grand Annual Collection, matching last year's results.

Prepare to make your 2026 Grand Annual Collection gift by

- Reading the Grand Annual Collection letter arriving this week.
- Using the QR code below to review the parish's annual report for July 1, 2025 - June 30, 2026.
- Praying about God's blessings and your gift to this important collection.

St. Julia Parish Annual Report

The Mission is Far from Over!

In his last words before ascending to heaven, Jesus told us, "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Mt 28:19), and for 2,000 years the Church has been at work in this task.

Last week, we celebrated World Mission Sunday. We must never forget that 5.5 of the 8.1 billion people alive are not Christian, even now two millennia after Pentecost. The World Mission Sunday collection helps the Church to reach out to these brothers and sisters of ours who have yet to hear the message of Christ.

Before 1908, the United States was considered missionary territory. The Church in America grew thanks to the support of World Mission Sunday, which built many of the first churches on American soil. Now, many years later, it's our turn to pay that generosity forward, as we care for the needs of our brothers and sisters across the globe.

We are grateful for your support this October—and we invite you to continue the journey. To find out more about how to do so, please visit www.pontificalmissions.org.

Welcome Fall!

As we welcome the beauty of fall, we are grateful for everyone who has shown interest in the Pantry and in learning how to help SVdP Lincoln and Weston serve our community's most vulnerable neighbors.

There are many ways to make a difference:

Host a fall food drive at your school, workplace, or neighborhood

Drop off nonperishable, non-expired food at the back of St. Julia Church or on the back porch of St. Joseph House behind St. Joseph Church

Volunteer as a member of our financial emergency assistance committee

Join our mission by becoming involved in a committee or special project

We need people who want to make a meaningful difference in our community. Whether you can give your time, organize a food drive, lend your skills, or simply help spread the word, your involvement matters.

Thank you for caring about our neighbors and for helping us build a stronger, more compassionate community together.

DON'T FORGET TO FALL BACK.
