Solemnity of All Saints — November 1, 2026

Gathering Hymn: For All the Saints

For all the saints who from their labors rest,
All who by faith before the world confessed,
Your name, O Jesus, be forever blest.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

O blest communion, family divine!
We feebly struggle, they in glory shine;
Yet all are one within your great design.
Alleluia! Alleluia!

From earth's wide bounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost:
Alleluia! Alleluia!

Gloria: Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will.
We praise you, we bless you, we adore you, we glorify you,
we give you thanks for your great glory,
Lord God, heavenly King, O God, almighty Father.
Lord Jesus Christ, Only Begotten Son,
Lord God, Lamb of God, Son of the Father,
you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us;
you take away the sins of the world, receive our prayer;
you are seated at the right hand of the Father, have mercy on us.
For you alone are the Holy One, you alone are the Lord,
you alone are the Most High, Jesus Christ,
with the Holy Spirit, in the glory of God the Father. Amen.

First Reading: Revelation 7:2-4, 9-14

I, John, saw another angel come up from the East, holding the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were given power to damage the land and the sea, "Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." I heard the number of those who had been marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand marked from every tribe of the children of Israel. After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb." All the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They prostrated themselves before the throne, worshiped God, and exclaimed: "Amen. Blessing and glory, wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen." Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me, "Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?" I said to him, "My lord, you are the one who knows." He said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb."

Responsorial Psalm*:* "Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face."

Second Reading: 1 John 3:1-3

Beloved:
See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God. Yet so we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him, for we shall see him as he is. Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure, as he is pure.

Gospel Acclamation "Alleluia"

Gospel: Matthew 5:1-12a

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him. He began to teach them, saying: "Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the land. Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be satisfied. Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy. Blessed are the clean of heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven. Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

The Nicene Creed:

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ,
the Only Begotten Son of God,
born of the Father before all ages.
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
consubstantial with the Father;
through him all things were made.

For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven,
and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate,
he suffered death and was buried, and rose again
on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures.
He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church.
I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Preparation of the Gifts: Lord of All Hopefulness

Lord of all hopefulness, Lord of all joy,
Whose trust, ever childlike, no cares can destroy,
Be there at our waking, and give us, we pray,
Your bliss in our hearts, Lord, at the break of the day.

Lord of all eagerness, Lord of all faith,
Whose strong hands were skilled at the plane and the lathe,
Be there at our labors, and give us, we pray,
Your strength in our hearts, Lord, at the noon of the day.

Lord of all kindliness, Lord of all grace,
Your hands swift to welcome, your arms to embrace,
Be there at our homing, and give us, we pray,
Your love in our hearts, Lord, at the eve of the day.

Lord of all gentleness, Lord of all calm,
Whose voice is contentment, whose presence is balm,
Be there at our sleeping, and give us, we pray,
Your peace in our hearts, Lord, at the end of the day.

Communion Hymn: I Am the Bread of Life

I am the bread of life. You who come to me shall not hunger;
And who believes in me shall not thirst.
No one can come to me unless the Father beckons.

Refrain
And I will raise you up, and I will raise you up, and I will raise you up on the last day.

The bread that I will give is my flesh for the life of the world,
and if you eat of this bread,
you shall live forever, you shall live forever. Refrain

Unless you eat of the flesh of the Son of Man and drink of his blood, and drink of his blood, you shall not have life within you. Refrain

I am the resurrection, I am the life.
If you believe in me, even though you die,
You shall live forever. Refrain

Yes, Lord, I believe that you are the Christ,
the Son of God,
who has come into the world. Refrain

Thank you for joining us in worship today! Please see the Bulletin section in the following pages for events and service opportunities, or go to our website: stjulia.org

We wish you a blessed week!

Closing Hymn: Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones

Ye watchers and ye holy ones,
Bright seraphs, cherubim, and thrones,
Raise the glad strain, Alleluia!
Cry out, dominions, princedoms, powers,
Virtues, archangels, angels' choirs,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Respond, ye souls in endless rest,
Ye patriarchs and prophets blest,
Alleluia, Alleluia!
Ye holy Twelve, ye martyrs strong,
All saints triumphant, raise in song,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

O friends in gladness let us sing,
Supernal anthems echoing
Alleluia, Alleluia!
To God the Father, God the Son,
And God the Spirit, Three in One,
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

Annual Memorial Masses

November 8, 11:30 a.m. and 5:00 p.m.

During November, which begins with the celebration of All Saints and All Souls, we, the church, are called in a special way “to remember our brothers and sisters who have gone to their rest.” During the 11:30 a.m. Mass at St. Julia Church and the 5:00 p.m. Mass on Sunday, November 8, 2026, Saint Julia Parish will have a special remembrance for Fr. Mark Mahoney and others whose funerals were celebrated here during the past year.

Parishioners can submit the names of family members and friends who died during the past year, but whose funerals were celebrated elsewhere. The Mass will include a reading of the names of all those we remember. Please submit the names of family members and friends who died since November 1, 2025, by noon on Monday, November 2, 2026, for inclusion in this year's Annual Memorial Masses. Please submit names by emailing (parish@stjulia.org) or calling 781-899-2611.

We pray that these Masses will be a source of comfort and great hope for the future.

Grand Annual Collection 2026 Launched

As we look forward to coming together as a country to celebrate Thanksgiving by giving thanks to God for his many blessings, as a Church to keep the season of Advent by preparing to celebrate the birth of Christ, and as we close the books on calendar year 2026, St. Julia Parish has launched the 2026 Grand Annual Collection. Fr. Scott invites you to reflect on the year and how God has blessed you and your family.

The Parish Annual Report for July 1, 2025, through June 30, 2026, was published in the September 27 bulletin. It also included the current budget for July 1, 2026, through June 30, 2027. I hope you had an opportunity to review it. If not, you can review it by scanning the QR code below. St. Julia Parish is unique in that it relies heavily on the Grand Annual Collection for both operational expenses and capital improvements. Last year's Grand Annual Collection accounted for nearly 32% of the parish's total income. This year we budgeted $315,000 for the Grand Annual Collection, matching last year's results.

Help us offer more faith-filled activities, like when we celebrate St. Francis on October 3-4, our Fall Festival Weekend. With the Sacrament of Confirmation now in grade eight, give us the means to establish and grow a comprehensive youth ministry for grades 9-12.

We mailed Grand Annual Collection information the week of October 25. If you did not receive it, there are extra information packets at the doors of the church. Please return the enclosed self-addressed Grand Annual Collection envelope by mail, in the collection basket at any parish Mass, or drop it off at the parish center. Donations can also be made conveniently online by scanning the QR code below. Thank you for helping to sustain and grow our parish.

Thank you for your generosity! We wish you and your loved ones a blessed and Happy Thanksgiving!

Gather Hymnals Will Return November 28/29

After consulting with Brian Moll, our Music Director and Organist, and the Pastoral Council, Fr. Scott has decided we will start using the Gather hymnals again this Advent, which signals the beginning of a new liturgical year. This year, Advent begins on the weekend of November 28 and 29. We are busy taking the hymnals out of storage, cleaning them, and placing the currently used translation of the Gloria and the Nicene Creed on the inside front cover and the facing page, respectively. The cantor will announce the page number for the day's readings at the start of Mass.

This change saves the parish money by eliminating the need to purchase copyright licenses, frees up three pages of the bulletin to promote parish activities and provide information about our Catholic faith, and makes a music resource available for funerals, Masses and liturgical services other than weekend Masses.
